Annual Index (Volume 31) 1999

Key — M/J:58 [May/June issue, page 58]

Subject Index

Alternative Rewards

Going for the Gold: Introducing Goalsharing in a Public Sector Organization M/J:40
A new goalsharing rewards program for employees helps a New York State Network of Veterans Administration Hospitals to become a more customer-focused, cost-effective organization.

Practical Lessons for Designing an Economic Value Incentive Plan M/A:61
Are you creating a powerful management tool or just delivering fancy pay?

Rewarding Employees Who Truly Make a Difference M/J:34
Adopting a new compensation strategy that rewards employees based on contributions to the organization requires new ways of thinking about organizational goals and the ways employees do their jobs.

Benefits

The Art and Context of the Deal: A Balanced View of Executive Incentives J/F:25
The whole "employment deal"—including job security, benefits, and base pay—can be more important than high levels of incentives.

Assuring Retirement Benefit Plan Compliance S/O:63
For retirement plans, administration is much more than a series of simple, routine tasks.

Automatic 401(k) Enrollment: Retirement: Cure-All or Bitter Pill? M/A:54
Automatic 401(k) enrollment can boost plan participation among employees, but it isn't right for everyone.

Executive and Outside Director Benefits ....N/D: 15
As labor markets tighten and competition for executive talent increases, companies are creating more generous benefit packages for executives and outside directors.

Group Legal Insurance: An Effective Recruiting and Retaining Tool M/J:46
Group legal insurance can be a low-cost, low-maintenance, high satisfaction addition to a benefit package.

Healthcare: Trouble Ahead M/A:20
Costs are rising, quality of service is problematic, and more people than ever are going without health insurance. Healthcare issues are heating up once again.

Long-Term Care: Addressing the Real Issues S/O:69

Long-Term Care: Alternative Solutions....N/D: 55

Bilingual Pay

The Network Discusses: Additional Pay for Bilingual Abilities M/A:27

COBRA

New COBRA Regulations ....N/D: 18
Employers must comply with new COBRA regulations that become effective on January 1, 2000.

Communications

When You Say, "We'll Keep You Whole," Do You Mean It? J/A:40
Setting realistic expectations and sending the right message to employees are critical elements in effective expatriate management.

Compensation Strategy

Developing a Reward Strategy That Delivers Shareholder and Employee Value....M/A:46
Reward programs are richer, but few companies have anchored these programs as part of an overall HR strategy.

Integrating Compensation Strategies: A Holistic Approach to Compensation Design S/O:36
In this case study, a company in a high-growth industry successfully used a new integrated incentive compensation program to satisfy strategic concerns and differentiate itself in the marketplace.

Rewarding Employees Who Truly Make a Difference M/J:34
Adopting a new compensation strategy that rewards employees based on contributions to the organization requires new ways of thinking about organizational goals and the ways employees do their jobs.

Competency-Based Pay

Dealing with Scarce Talent: Lessons from the Leading Edge M/A:36
Winners in the competition for scarce talent are finding new ways to reward employees when they acquire added value, recognizing it before a competitor does, and creating a better workforce deal.

Rewarding Employees Who Truly Make a Difference M/J:34
Adopting a new compensation strategy that rewards employees based on contributions to the organization requires new ways of thinking about organizational goals and the ways employees do their jobs.

CBR Survey Reports

Competition for Hot Talent: How Companies Are Responding M/A:29
[CBR Minisurvey] Facing fierce competition for certain "hot-talent" specialists, companies are piling retention bonuses on top of hiring bonuses in order to lure and keep these workers.

Pay Program Effectiveness ....N/D: 20
Despite high levels of interest in changing compensation programs to link pay with results, most companies have not changed the way they manage their pay programs.

Currents in Compensation and Benefits

Currents in Compensation and Benefits M/A:6

Currents in Compensation and Benefits M/J:6

Currents in Compensation and Benefits S/O:6

Currents in Compensation and Benefits ....N/O: 6

Directors' Compensation

Directors and Shareholders as Equity Partners?

Handle With Care!.....J/F:73
With the encouragement of institutional investors, more companies are paying corporate board members with company stock. Will this trend enhance shareholders' interests or cause new problems?

Executive and Outside Director Benefits .....N/D: 15
As labor markets tighten and competition for executive talent increases, companies are creating more generous benefit packages for executives and outside directors.

Economic Value
Practical Lessons for Designing an Economic Value Incentive Plan M/A:61
Are you creating a powerful management tool or just delivering fancy pay?

Equity Based Compensation (See also Stock Based Compensation)
Employee Strategies for Stock-Based Compensation .....N/D: 41
Employees need the right strategy to derive the greatest benefit from stock based compensation.

Equity Based Compensation at High-Growth Companies: Responding to Long-Term Stock Price Declines S/O:44
Many growth companies use stock options to retain high-tech talent, and repricing may be necessary to promote employee retention. Without this critical tool, shareholders' interests are likely to be impaired.

Foreign Equity Based Compensation and U.S. Securities Laws.....J/A:60
As globalization brings more foreign firms to the U.S., legal requirements related to equity based compensation plans come into play.

Euro
The Euro's Impact on Pay and HR Policies J/A:75
As Europe moves toward a single market and a single currency, pay transparency becomes a reality.

Executive Compensation
The Art and Context of the Deal: A Balanced View of Executive Incentives J/F:25
The whole "employment deal," including job security, benefits, and base pay, can be more important than high levels of incentives.

Don't Pay for Executive Failure J/F:54
When negotiating for top talent, consider what the company would have to pay if the executive fails to perform.

Executive Compensation Is Still Rising J/F:7
Even as demand for executives slows, markets for executives are still tight. As markets ease, pay increases are expected to slow also.

Executive and Outside Director Benefits .....N/D: 15
As labor markets tighten and competition for executive talent increases, companies are creating more generous benefit packages for executives and outside directors.

A Fresh Look at Incentive Plans for Privately Held Companies J/F:61
Two emerging long-term incentive designs may help private companies overcome the limitations of traditional plans.

Growing Shareholder Value: Why Executive Stock Ownership Works J/F:32
Stock purchases are the most effective way to ensure that CEOs take prudent risks to increase shareholder value.

Long-Term Incentives: How Private Companies Can Compete With Public Companies J/F:44
To successfully compete for key employee talent, companies must become keenly aware of market total direct compensation.

Setting Executive Compensation:
Does the Industry You're In Really Matter? J/F:13
The facts call into question the widely held belief that each industry has a unique set of executive compensation practices. The lesson is to look beyond standard industry practices.

Should Options Reward Absolute or Relative Shareholder Returns? J/F:38
Executive stock options are often poorly linked to shareholder value. Here are some ways to fix the problem.

Expatriate Policy (See also Global Compensation)
Expatriate Policy and Practice:
A Ten-Year Comparison of Trends J/A:35
Employers are finding new ways to control the cost of expatriate assignments while creating packages that attract the right candidates.

When You Say, "We'll Keep You Whole," Do You Mean It? J/A:40
Setting realistic expectations and sending the right message to employees are critical elements in effective expatriate management.

401(K) Plans
Automatic 401(k) Enrollment:
Retirement Cure-All or Bitter Pill? M/A:54
Automatic 401(k) enrollment can boost plan participation among employees, but it isn't right for everyone.

Global Compensation
The CBR Advisory Board Comments on:
Hiring Hot Talent, Pay Strategies, Global Compensation, and Stock Ownership M/A:71
The CBR Advisory Board takes on today's major compensation and benefits issues.

The Euro's Impact on Pay and HR Policies J/A:75
As Europe moves toward a single market and a single currency, pay transparency becomes a reality.

Expatriate Policy and Practice:
A Ten-Year Comparison of Trends J/A:35
Employers are finding new ways to control the costs of expatriate assignments while creating packages that attract the right candidates.

Foreign Equity Based Compensation and U.S. Securities Laws J/A:60
As globalization brings more firms to the U.S., legal requirements related to equity based compensation plans come into play.

Global Pay? Maybe Not Yet!.....J/A:25
Every company that enters the global market must tackle tough issues of global compensation. Focusing on total remuneration and maintaining local flexibility are the keys.

Global Pay: The Economic Context J/A:7
Compensation managers planning global pay programs in the coming years may be working in a more stable economic environment.

Rewards in a Global Context.....J/A:69
Understanding rewards in a global context means understanding business and strategic issues, affordability, markets, cultures, currencies and purchasing power in multiple locations.

Think Globally, Pay Locally: Finding the Right Mix ..J/A:15
Going global means facing a series of choices about compensation design that hinge on a company's specific needs.

Thinking About a Global Share Plan? Think Smart! J/A:54
Ten crucial factors can make or break a share plan.

Trends in Global Compensation....J/A:48
Employers can shape a group of "global employees" with compensation programs that reflect the new value placed on international assignments.

When You Say, "We'll Keep You Whole," Do You Mean It? J/A:40
Setting realistic expectations and sending the right message to employees are critical elements in effective expatriate management.

Goalsharing

Going for the Gold: Introducing Goalsharing in a Public Sector Organization M/J:40
A new goalsharing rewards program for employees helps a New York State Network of Veterans Administration hospitals to become a more customer-focused, cost-effective organization.

Growth Companies

Equity Based Compensation at High-Growth Compensation Companies: Responding to Long-Term Stock Price Declines S/O:44
Many growth companies use stock options to retain high-tech talent, and repricing may be necessary to promote employee retention. Without this critical tool, shareholders' interests are likely to be impaired.

Retaining High-Tech Talent: NIIT Case Study S/O:31
Among high-growth IT companies, employee turnover has been a major problem. One company reports how it developed an innovative compensation program to cut its turnover rate to less than one-third of the industry average.

"You've Changed, Man"—Compensation in Growing Companies....S/O:27
The key to creating the right compensation programs at high-growth Internet companies lies in understanding all of the components of compensation and how compensation evolves as the business grows.

Healthcare Benefits

Healthcare: Trouble Ahead M/A:20
Costs are rising, quality of service is problematic and more people than ever are going without health insurance. Healthcare issues are heating up once again.

Hiring

Competition for Hot Talent: How Companies are Responding....M/A:29
[CBR Minisurvey] Facing fierce competition for certain "hot-talent" specialists, companies are piling retention bonuses on top of hiring bonuses in order to lure and keep these workers.

The CBR Advisory Board Comments on: Hiring Hot Talent, Pay Strategies, Global Compensation and Stock Ownership....M/A:71
The CBR Advisory Board takes on today's major compensation and benefits issues.

Dealing with Scarce Talent: Lessons from the Leading Edge M/A:36
Winners in the competition for scarce talent are finding new ways to reward employees when they acquire added value, recognizing it before a competitor does, and creating a better workforce deal.

Don't Pay for Executive Failure J/F:54
When negotiating for top talent, consider what the company would have to pay if the executive fails to perform

Human Resource Management (See also Performance Management)

The Euro's Impact on Pay and HR Policies J/A:75
As Europe moves toward a single market and a single currency, pay transparency becomes reality.

Get Your Workforce Ready to Respond to Y2K Failures M/J:21
In their Y2K planning, few companies are addressing how to prepare their workers, not only to maintain operations, but also to service both external and internal customers in the event of a Y2K crisis.

Ready or Not, Here it Comes, But Will Y2K Leave a Host of HR Glitches Behind? M/J:31
Year 2000 is around the corner. Have a contingency plan in place and document your HR compliance efforts!

Incentives (See also Alternative Rewards; Stock Based Compensation)

A Fresh Look at Incentive Plans for Privately Held Companies J/F:61
Two emerging long-term incentive designs may help private companies overcome the limitations of traditional plans.

Going for the Gold: Introducing Goalsharing in a Public Sector Organization M/J:40
A new goalsharing rewards program for employees helps a New York State Network of Veterans Administration Hospitals to become a more customer-focused, cost-effective organization.

Long-Term Incentives: How Private Companies Can Compete With Public Companies....J/F:44
To successfully compete for key employee talent, companies must become keenly aware of market total direct compensation.

Information Network Exchange

The Network Discusses: Additional Pay for Bilingual Abilities M/A:27

Practical Lessons for Designing an Economic Value Incentive Plan M/A:61
Are you creating a powerful management tool or just delivering fancy pay?

Rewarding Employees Who Truly Make a Difference M/J:34
Adopting a new compensation strategy that rewards employees based on contributions to the organization requires new ways of thinking about organizational goals and the ways employees do their jobs.

International Pay (See Global Compensation)

Legal Insurance

Group Legal Insurance: An Effective Recruiting and Retaining Tool M/J:46
Group legal insurance can be a low-cost, low-maintenance, high satisfaction addition to a benefit package.

Long-Term Care Insurance

Long-Term Care: Addressing the Real Issues S/O:69
Today's long-term care crisis can be resolved, but not by the proposals now on the table.

Long-Term Care: Alternative Solutions N/D:55
Long-term care insurance provided through employer-sponsored plans offers a viable solution for today's working-age caregivers.

Metrics Reports

Executive Compensation Is Still Rising J/F:7
Even as demand for executives slows, markets for executives are still tight. As markets ease, pay increases are expected to slow also.

Global Pay: The Economic Context J/A:7
Compensation managers planning global pay programs in the coming years may be working in a more stable economic environment.

Healthcare: Trouble Ahead M/A:20
Costs are rising, quality of service is problematic, and more people than ever are going without health insurance. Healthcare issues are heating up once again.

No End in Sight for Tight Labor Markets, Upward Pressure on Wages S/O:23
With unemployment at record lows, wages and employment costs are ticking up.

Workers' Compensation: Hard Times Ahead M/J:15
Workers' compensation rates for employers are forecast to drop by 2.5% this year but rise by 2.6% in 2000, ending a long run of low premiums for employers.

Pay Program Effectiveness

Pay Program Effectiveness—CBR Survey .....N/D: 20
Despite high levels of interest in changing compensation programs to link pay with results, most companies have not changed the way they manage their pay programs.

Pension and Retirement Benefits

Assuring Retirement Benefit Plan Compliance S/O:63
For retirement plans, administration is much more than a series of simple, routine tasks.

Automatic 401(k) Enrollment: Retirement Cure-All or Bitter Pill? M/A:54
Automatic 401(k) enrollment can boost plan participation among employees, but it isn't for everyone.

Long-Term Care: Addressing the Real Issues S/O:69
Today's long-term care crisis can be resolved, but not by the proposals now on the table.

Long-Term Care: Alternative Solutions N/D:55
Long-term care insurance provided through employer-sponsored plans offers a viable solution for today's working-age caregivers.

Performance Management

Rewarding Employees Who Truly Make a Difference M/J:34
Adopting a new compensation strategy that rewards employees based on contributions to the organization requires new ways of thinking about organizational goals and the ways employees do their jobs.

Plan Design

Integrating Compensation Strategies: A Holistic Approach to Compensation Design S/O:36
In this case study, a company in a high-growth industry successfully used a new integrated incentive compensation program to satisfy strategic concerns and differentiate itself in the marketplace.

Recruiting and Retention (See also Hiring)

Competition for Hot Talent: How Companies Are Responding M/A:29
[CBR Minisurvey] Facing fierce competition for certain "hot-talent" specialists, companies are piling retention bonuses on top of hiring bonuses in order to lure and keep these workers.

Dealing With Scarce Talent: Lessons from the Leading Edge M/A:36
Winners in the competition for scarce talent are finding new ways to reward employees when they acquire added value, recognizing it before a competitor does, and creating a better workforce deal.

Group Legal Insurance: An Effective Recruiting and Retaining Tool M/J:46
Group legal insurance can be a low-cost, low-maintenance, high satisfaction addition to a benefit package.

Retaining High-Tech Talent: NIIT Case Study S/O:31
Among high-growth IT companies, employee turnover has been a major problem. One company reports how it developed an innovative compensation program to cut its turnover rate to less than one-third of the industry average.

Russian Computer Talent Fills a Void in the U.S. Workforce M/A:45
Russians and Eastern Europeans are filling vacancies—and finding success, in the U.S. high-tech marketplace.

Salary Negotiations

The Salary Trap .....N/D: 27
Using a job applicant's salary history to set compensation may perpetuate past patterns of wage and salary discrimination.

Sales Compensation

Sales Compensation Software: A Practical Guide S/O:54
New software and the right implementation process can help companies automate their sales compensation plan management.

Stock Based Compensation (See also Equity Based Compensation)

Directors and Shareholders as Equity Partners? Handle With Care!.....J/F:73
With the encouragement of institutional investors, more companies are paying corporate board members with company stock. Will this trend enhance shareholders' interests or cause new problems?

Employee Strategies for Stock Based Compensation .....N/D: 41
Employees need the right strategy to derive the greatest benefit from stock based compensation.

Equity Based Compensation at High-Growth Companies: Responding to Long-Term Stock Price Declines S/O:44
Many growth companies use stock options to retain high-tech talent, and repricing may be necessary to promote employee retention. Without this critical tool, shareholders' interests are likely to be impaired.

Should Options Reward Absolute or Relative Shareholder Returns?.....J/F:38
Executive stock options are often poorly linked to shareholder value. Here are some ways to fix the problem.

Growing Shareholder Value: Why Executive Stock Ownership Works J/F:32
Stock purchases are the most effective way to ensure that CEOs take prudent risks to increase shareholder value.

Stock Option Repricing: What Now? .....N/D: 31
Despite FASB's new rule, some companies may need to reprice to balance the needs and desires of employees and shareholders.

The CBR Advisory Board Comments on: Hiring Hot Talent, Pay Strategies, Global Compensation, and Stock Ownership M/A:71

The CBR Advisory Board takes on today's major compensation and benefits issues.

Surveys

Ten Questions to Ask Yourself About Compensation Surveys M/J:54
Compensation surveys can either make or break your pay system. Is the survey you're using the right one?

Pay Program Effectiveness—CBR Survey ..... N/D 20
Despite high levels of interest in changing compensation programs to link pay with results, most companies have not changed the way they manage their pay programs.

Variable Pay (See Alternative Rewards)

Wage Discrimination

The Salary Trap ..... N/D: 27
Using a job applicant's salary history to set compensation may perpetuate past patterns of wage and salary discrimination.

Workers' Compensation

Workers' Compensation: Hard Times Ahead M/J:15
Workers' compensation rates for employers are forecast to drop by 2.5% this year but rise by 2.6% in 2000, ending a long run of low premiums for employers.

Y2K

Get Your Workforce Ready to Respond to Y2K Failures M/J:21
In their Y2K planning, few companies are addressing how to prepare their workers not only to maintain operations but also to service both external and internal customers in the event of a Y2K crisis.

Ready or Not, Here It Comes, But Will Y2K Leave a Host of HR Glitches Behind? M/J:31

Author Index

Altmansberger, H.N. "Rug" (See Ray, Harry H.)

Baranski, Marc
Think Globally, Pay Locally: Finding the Right Mix ..J/A:15

Blackburn, Jan (See Kurlander, Peter)

Bloom, Matt
The Art and Context of the Deal: A Balanced View of Executive Incentives J/F:25

Bohl, Don
Competition for Hot Talent: How Companies Are Responding [CBR Minisurvey] M/A:29

Bremen, John M. and Maggi Coil
Get Your Workforce Ready to Respond To Y2K Failures M/J:21

Brennan, Jim
Group Legal Insurance: An Effective Recruiting and Retaining Tool M/J:4

Brooks, Deanna S.
Executive and Outside Director Benefits ..... N/D: 15

Buckley, Michelle H.
Assuring Retirement Benefit Plan Compliance S/O:63

Coil, Maggi (See Bremen, John M.)

Dalton, Dan R. and Catherine M. Daily
Directors and Shareholders as Equity Partners? Handle With Care! J/F:73

Daily, Catherine M. (See Dalton, Dan R.)

Delves, Don
Practical Lessons for Designing an Economic Value Incentive Plan M/A:61

Dhingra, Lalit (See Gionfriddo, Jim)

Dolmat-Connell, Jack
Developing a Reward Strategy That Delivers Shareholder and Employee Value M/A:46

Dwyer, Timothy D.
Trends in Global Compensation J/A:48

Fink, Jay
Russian Computer Talent Fills a Void in the U.S. Workforce M/A:45

Gilles, Paul L.
A Fresh Look at Incentive Plans for Privately Held Companies J/F:61

Gionfriddo, Jim and Lalit Dhingra
Retaining High-Tech Talent: NIIT Case Study S/O:31

Gross, Steven E. and Per L. Wingerup
Global Pay? Maybe Not Yet! J/A:25

Hackett, Thomas J., and Donald G. McDermott
Integrating Compensation Strategies: A Holistic Approach to Compensation Design S/O:36

Hansen, Fay
Currents in Compensation and Benefits M/A:6
Currents in Compensation and Benefits M/J:6
Currents in Compensation and Benefits S/O:6
Executive Compensation Is Still Rising J/F:7
Global Pay: The Economic Context J/A:7
Healthcare: Trouble Ahead M/A:20
No End in Sight for Tight Labor Markets, Upward Pressure on Wages S/O:23
Workers' Compensation: Hard Times Ahead M/J:15

Hitt, Roger (See Longnecker, Brent M.)

Johnson, Alan
Should Options Reward Absolute or Relative Shareholder Returns? J/F:38

Kay, Ira T.
Growing Shareholder Value: Why Executive Stock Ownership Works J/F:32

Kohn, Arthur and Steven W. Rabitz
Foreign Equity Based Compensation and U.S. Securities Laws J/A:60

Konopaske, Robert (See Werner, Steve)

Kurlander, Peter and Jan Blackburn
Sales Compensation Software: A Practical Guide S/O:54

Larre, Eric C.
Equity-Based Compensation at High-Growth: Companies Responding to Long-Term Stock Price Declines S/O:44

Latta, Geoffrey W.
Expatriate Policy and Practice: A Ten-Year Comparison of Trends J/A:35

Lederer, Jack L. and Carl R. Weinberg
Setting Executive Compensation: Does the Industry You're In Really Matter? J/F:13

Linney, Reid
Stock Option Repricing: What Now? ..... N/D: 31

Longnecker, Brent M., Brent T. Petersen and Roger Hitt
Long-Term Incentives: How Private Companies Can Compete With Public Companies J/F:44

McDermott, Donald G. (See Hackett, Thomas J.)

Oemig, Denise
When You Say, "We'll Keep You Whole," Do You Mean It?" J/A:40

Pearson, Robert L.
Long-Term Care: Addressing the Real Issues S/O:69

Petersen, Brent T. (See Longnecker, Brent M., and Hitt, Roger)

Plachy, Roger and Sandra Plachy
Rewarding Employees Who Truly Make a Difference M/J:34

Rabitz, Steven W. (See Kohn, Arthur)

Ray, Harry H. and H. N. "Rug" Altmansberger
Going for the Gold: Introducing Goalsharing in a Public Sector Organization M/J:40

Reznick, Michael P.
"You've Changed, Man"—Compensation in Growing Companies S/O:27

Risher, Howard
Pay Program Effectiveness—CBR Survey ..... N/D: 20

Schuster, Jay R. (See Zingheim, Patricia K.)

Shonfield, David
The Euro's Impact on Pay and HR Policies J/A:75

Silver, Ivy
Long-Term Care: Alternative Solutions ..... N/D: 55

Stanek, Martin J. and Paul M. Yenerall
Ready or Not, Here It Comes, But Will Y2K Leave a Host of HR Glitches Behind? M/J:31

Strege, David
Employee Strategies for Stock Based Compensation N/D:41

Sutro, Peter J.
Thinking About a Global Share Plan? Think Smart J/A:54

Swinford, David N.
Don't Pay for Executive Failure J/F:54

Taylor, David J. (See Brooks, Deanna S.)

Thompson, Michael A. and John Yurkutat
Rewards in a Global Context J/A:69

Touhey, Chris (See Werner, Steve)

Troiano, Peter
The CBR Advisory Board Comments on: Hiring Hot Talent, Pay Strategies, Global Compensation, and Stock Ownership M/A:71

Turnasella, Ted
The Salary Trap ..... N/D: 27

Watts, Kevin (See Brooks, Deanna S.)

Weinberg, Carl R. (See Lederer, Jack L.)

Werner, Steve, Robert Konopaske, and Chris Touhey
Ten Questions to Ask Yourself About Compensation Surveys M/J:54

Wingerup, Per L. (See Gross, Steven E.)

Winzeler, Heidi
New COBRA Regulations ..... N/D: 18

Yenerall, Paul M. (See Stanek, Martin J.)

Youden, Diane
Automatic 401(k) Enrollment: Retirement Cure-All or Bitter Pill? M/A:54

Yurkutat, John (See Thompson, Michael A.)

Zingheim, Patricia K. and Jay R. Schuster
Dealing With Scarce Talent: Lessons from the Leading Edge M/A:36